

If Tomorrow Never Comes

If I knew it would be the last time I'd see you fall asleep, I would tuck you in more tightly and pray the Lord, your soul to keep, If I knew it would be the last time that I see you walk out the door, I would give you a hug and kiss and call you back for more. If I knew it would be the last time I'd hear your voice lifted in praise, I would video tape each action and word, so I could play them back day after day. If I knew it would be the last time, I could spare an extra minute or two to stop and say "I Love You", instead of assuming you would KNOW I do. If I knew it would be the last time I would be there to share your day, well I'm sure you'll have so many more, so I can let just this one slip away. For surely there's always tomorrow to make up for an oversight, and we always get a second chance to make everything right. There will always be another day to say our "I love you's", And certainly there's another chance to say our "Anything I can do's?" But just in case I might be wrong, and today is all I get, I'd like to say how much I love you and I hope you never forget, Tomorrow is not promised to anyone, young or old alike, And today may be the last chance you get to hold your loved one tight. So if you're waiting for tomorrow, why not do it today? For if tomorrow never comes, you'll surely regret the day, That you didn't take that extra time for a smile, a hug, or a kiss and you were too busy to grant someone, what turned out to be their one last wish. So hold your loved ones close today, whisper in their ear, Tell them how much you love them and that you'll always hold them dear, Take time to say "I'm sorry," "please forgive me," "thank you" or "it's okay". And if tomorrow never comes, you'll have NO regrets about Today.

Obituary

Marquita Shanee' Owens-Freeman was born on January 9, 1984 to Margaret Owens-Nelson and Scott Holt in Newark, NJ. Marquita was known by her nickname, "Na-Na", but her late great grandmother affectionately called her, "Angel".

Marquita was educated in the Newark Public School system. In 1996, she was accepted to University High School Gifted and Talented Program and she graduated Class of 2002. She furthered her education and went on to be certified in Surgical Technology, Home Health Care, Bartending and Real Estate. Marquita also met the love of her life, Raymond Freeman and devoted her life to him in marriage on November 19, 2010.

Marquita was employed by Keller Properties as the Assistant Property Manager. She was loved by her colleagues and tenants. Marquita was known for her beautiful smile and her appetite. If you were cooking, Na-Na was there. Marquita was also best at beating everyone at the game of MADGAB.

On August 21, 2013, it was God's will that she and her unborn child be called home to their final resting place.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories: her loving husband, Raymond "Pooh" Freeman; her son, Nasir Denny; her daughter, Sarayah Freeman; her stepson, Nyaad Freeman; her parents, Scott Holt, Margaret and Michael Nelson; her grandmother, Williah Hannah; her siblings, Almeria Holt-Stokes (Jibill Stokes), Kyiesha Nelson, Christian Holt, Nakiyah Nelson and Michael Nelson; two godchildren, Malachi and Kyle; her one and only niece, Se'Jeida Jordan; best friend, Shareefa Clark; and a host of other relatives and friends.
