Obituary

Glorelle McClain was born in Madison Heights, Virginia to the late George and Alice Berry Anderson. The family relocated to Orange, New Jersey when she was a child. She attended the Orange Public Schools.

Glorelle was employed as a domestic for over forty years. She was a member of Bethel Baptist Church in Orange where she served as a faithful member until her health failed.

She spent many happy days at the Premier Civic Center on Day Street in Orange where she enjoyed mingling with the other senior citizens in activities such as bingo or cards.

Glorelle was a devoted caregiver to her son, Emmett who was disabled for more than thirty years. She enjoyed cooking and often opened her home to her nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her loving husband, Adel McClain and her only son, Emmett Harry McClain.

Glorelle leaves to mourn one nephew, Norman Miles, Sr.; two nieces, Lillian Reaves and Grace Ferrell; one great nephew, Norman Miles, Jr.; a true friend, Sandrea Gregory; and a host of other family and friends.

Come To Me

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around you
And whispered, 'Come to me'
With tearful eyes we watched you
And saw you pass away
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*
