

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*

Obituary

Joseph H. Taylor the son of the late Louise and Rhames Taylor was born on June 3, 1938 in Rembert, South Carolina.

He attended Mathers Academy and Ebenezer High School and graduated in 1960. He enjoyed sports throughout his high school years and actively participated in his favorite sports, basketball, football and baseball.

He found Christ at an early age and was baptized at the St. Stephen's Baptist Church. He entered the U.S. Army and served his term with distinction, receiving an honorable discharge in 1957. He relocated from South Carolina to New York City and was employed as a union painter for L&L Painting Co. until retiring in 1998.

He met the love of his life, JoAnn and married her in 1965 and they lived in Manhattan and Queens until his passing.

He leaves to mourn him: a loving and devoted wife, JoAnn; three sons, Kenny, Reggie and Tommy; one grandson, Kenny Jr.; two sisters, Amelia Alston of Rembert, SC and Elisa Bynum of New York City, NY; one brother, George N. Taylor of Carson, CA; three sisters-in-law, Yvonne Taylor of Carson, CA, Sara Reed of Hermitage, PA and Alene Taylor of Rembert, SC; two aunts, Mary Pringle of Rembert, SC and Lula Bradford of Philadelphia, PA; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

He was loved greatly and will truly be missed.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family
