

God saw that you were getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He put his arms around you and whispered
"Come to Me"
With tearful eyes you slipped away from us all
Without even a goodbye.
Although we love you and will miss you dearly
We could not ask or make you stay.
A Golden heart has stopped beating
And hard working hands are now at rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us all,
He only takes the best

Obituary

Marlucious Bill Sanders was born October 14, 1942 to the late Eddie and Rossie Sanders in Colquitt, Georgia. He was the eleventh of thirteen children.

He attended Hutto High School in Bainbridge, Georgia. After graduating high school he enlisted in the United States Army. After being honorably discharged he settled in Newark, New Jersey gaining employment at NJ Transit as a Bus Driver, in addition to working at the U.S. Post Office as a truck driver.

He later met and married Nancy Brewer and to this union four children were born Jerome, Eddie, Pamela, and Randy.

Marlucious Bill Sanders was a fun-loving, husband, father, grandfather, uncle, brother, and friend. He loved to laugh and bring joy to others. Amongst other things he was quick to tell you when you were worrying him.

Marlucious Bill Sanders preceded in death by his parents Eddie and Rossie Sanders his brothers Eddie Sanders Jr. And R.L Sanders and sisters Addie Lee Wallace, Lillie C. “Cudda” Sanders Hayes, and Charles Etta Sanders “Sister”.

He leaves to continue his legacy: his wife, Nancy Brewer Sanders; three sons, Jerome (Maureen), Eddie (Shontez) and Randy and one daughter, Pamela; nine grandchildren and two great grandchildren of Newark, NJ; three brothers, J.C (Helen) Sanders of Bainbridge, Georgia, Rev. Cleveland (Helen) Sanders of Baker County, Georgia and Charles J. (Sherry) Sanders of Newark, New Jersey, three sisters, Essie Mae Miller of Baker County, Georgia; Bertha Washington of Tampa, Florida and Ella (Jesse) Flanders of Bainbridge, Georgia; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.
