

This Too Shall Pass

*When your burdens are many
And your heart is heavy
And you doubt your strength can last,
Reach up, and hold tight to the Giver of Life.
And know, this too shall pass.
Oft' times we are laden
With trials and sorrows
That seem to come all too fast.
Reach up, hold tight to the Giver of Life. And know, this too shall pass.
When doubts and worries plague your soul.
And your problems are all too vast,
Reach up, hold tight to the Giver of Life
and know this too shall pass.
When your faith is tested. And pain is so great
And depression you can't seem to cast
Reach up, hold tight to the Giver of Life.
And know this too shall pass.*

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Wrenton Cobbs was born in Milton, North Carolina in Caswell County to Claude I. & Hannah J. Cobbs both of whom are deceased. He was the eldest of eight siblings. Costello, Claude, Melvin and Roland and three sisters, Marion (deceased), Cathy and Bessie.

To help support his family, Wrent worked on the farm with his father. After attending school for a few years, Wrent moved to Newark, New Jersey and became interested in professional boxing. He was a member of New Hope Baptist Church and volunteered as a Trustee for a few years. He was employed by General Motors and retired after ten years. After retirement, he managed Roland's Lounge, a night club for approximately thirteen years.

At the age of twenty-three, Wrent met Lucille Perry and were happily married for fifty-seven years. They enjoyed taking vacations, celebrating birthdays, anniversaries by going to see Broadway shows in New York City. They also traveled a lot and went on many cruises. From this union two children were born, Janet and Dexter.

Wrent was President of the club called The Home Boys created by a group of friends. Wrent was a happy go lucky man who enjoyed the night life and hanging out with his club members. He truly enjoyed life and had a great sense of humor. He always kept everyone laughing and had a big and caring heart for everyone that he met.

On August 28th, our Heavenly Father sent His Angels to take him home.

Wrent leaves to mourn: his loving and devoted wife, Lucille and two children, Janet Cobbs-Myers (Carlton), Raleigh, NC and Dexter Cobbs, Newark, NJ; two grandchildren, Justyn and Jayla; six siblings, Costello, Phoenix, AZ, Claude (Brenda), Danville, VA, Melvin (Dorothy), Hillside, NJ, Roland (Ida), Danville, VA, Marion (deceased) (Stanley), Cathy, Avenel, NJ and Bessie, Iselin, NJ; one aunt, Bessie Poindexter, Danville, VA; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and many dear friends including, The Home Boys.
