Obituary

Demont L. Christian, was born on August 10th, 1973 to Lorena Y. Christian and Melvin Frazier in Harlem, NY. He exchanged time for eternity on September 1st, 2013.

Demont's formal education started in the public school system throughout Manhattan, NY. He attended Brandice High School. He started his professional career in Security. He later transitioned into the administrative field at Fidelis Care NY as an Enrollment Associate. The most important job to Demont was being the Road Manager for his younger cousin Mook. This was the best of both worlds for him to gain experience in the Music Industry as well as spending quality time with his cousin. At the time of his untimely departure, Demont was employed in the Sanitation field.

Demont was affectionately known to his family and friends as “Cock”. He was also known for his distinctive bop. He spent most of his time in his neighborhood located on 116th Street and Manhattan Avenue. Demont was very free spirited and loved by everyone. He loved his family and friends very much and made it his priority to spend time with everyone. He was willing to drop whatever he was doing and come to your rescue whenever needed.

Demont was very adventurous, he enjoyed partying, taking vacations, and participating in any fun activities. He was also very resourceful, the family recalls a time when he took a vacation to Myrtle Beach. He left New York with twenty-six dollars and returned four days later with twenty-one. Phrases of Demont's that will always resonate with everyone that knew him: “Damn It Man”, “Meeeeeeean”, and “Man- Man” Demont's favorite pass time was driving cars; it didn't matter the distance he loved to drive. Most of all Demont had a love for the ladies.

He departed this life with his fiancée, Tamica L. Prince. Demont L. Christian went to join his deceased parents, Lorena Y. Christian and Melvin Fraizer.

He leaves to cherish: his four children, Travis Wright, Demont Wright, Iyana Christian, and Amir Martinez-Christian; his grandfather, Joseph Christian; his great-uncle, John Christian; his great-aunts, Faith Brown, Juanita Taylor, and Sarah Gregory; his sister, Yvette Fraizer-Greene; his nephew, Melvin Greene, his four cousins that he grew up with as his siblings, John Ancrum, Enjoli Outlaw, Qiana Outlaw, and Tahara Davis; his uncles, Curtis Fraizer, Carlos Fraizer, Glenn Fraizer, and Wadell Fraizer; his aunts, Sandra Christian, Melody Ancrum, Gail Outlaw, and Deborah Fraizer; his godfather, Donel Walker; his best friends, Mark Butler and Noble Butler; and a host of cousins and friends.

“Don't fear death, fear the un-lived life. LIVE as big as you can, with what you've got!” “Time slips, days pass, years fade, and life ends. What we came to do on earth must be done while there is time!”

God saw the road was getting rough, The hills were hard to climb; He gently closed your loving eyes and whispered, peace be thine. The many weary hours of pain, The sleepless nights are past, God loved you more than anyone and He gave you rest at last. The flowers we lay upon your grave may wither and decay. But the LOVE we have for you will never fade away.
