OUR LADY OF VICTORY CATHOLIC CHURCH
583 Throop Avenue • Brooklyn, NY

Obituary

Bridgette Cecilia McGuire, was born in Roxbury, on the Island of Tobago, West Indies on October 23, 1951. She immigrated to the U.S. in 1969. She met and married Thaeddeus James McGuire on September 30, 1972 in this very Church.

Bridgette worked for many years for an Insurance Company in Brooklyn, New York until she settled for a Wall Street position with Soloman Brothers until 1991.

Thereafter, she pursued her true interest: the buying and selling of Antiques. She eventually launched her own store in Brooklyn and until her death operated a famous antique shop called “The Scarlet Ribbon”.

Bridgette is survived by: her husband, Thaeddeus; her children, Terrance Friday, Debbie Friday, Darren McGuire, Kristal McGuire and Brandon McGuire. She also leaves behind her three grandchildren, Beverly and Channel Friday and Angelise McGuire, plus many nephews and nieces.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
