The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*

Obituary

A Time to Be Born- On November 11, 1937, the season of Lula Mae Wright began. She was born to Sammie Lessane and Hattie Ballard in the small town of Elizabethtown, NC. She was the youngest of two children.

A Time to Plant- As Lula grew up she always had a strong work ethic and the desire to help people. She left North Carolina at the young age of twenty-one and started a life in Newark, NJ where she continued her education to become a Certified Nursing Assistant.

A Time to Love- On June 1, 1966, Lula married the love of her life Charles Wright. Together they raised four children together; three sons, Robert Lessane, Glen Wright and Anthony Wright and one daughter, Olivia Wright. Lula and Charles were married thirty-one years before the Lord called him home to rest in 1997.

A Time Of Peace- The evening of September 6, 2013, Lula was called home to rest after an extended illness. Her memory will continue to live on through her surviving children, Olivia Wright and Anthony Wright; grandchildren, Khadiyah Burrell, Jamyra Brown, Devoin Wilder, Ahkia Wright, Chyna Wright and Muardeb Wright; two great-grandchildren, Dashawn Burrell and Alana Taylor; and a host of extended family and friends.
