Obituary

Kevin (Calvin) Devereaux, the son of Thelma Harper Devereaux and the late Lessie Devereaux of Sparta, GA was born on September 24, 1958 in Newark, NJ. He departed this life on September 19, 2013.

As a child he attended Dayton Street School and graduated from Boys Vocational High School in Newark, NJ. After graduating high school he went on to attend Kean College and majored in Industrial Arts. He worked as a supervisor for the Cathedral Health Care System. Although he did not play sports, he was a true Big Blue fan. He was always happy to receive a Giants jersey from his son.

In 1985, he met Janet Murray-Millard in East Orange, NJ at his brother's wedding. They married in 1998 in Union, NJ and together they reared one son, Robert (Bobby) Thomas Millard III.

Kevin gave his life to Christ at an early age. He later joined St. Mark's A.M.E. Church. His passion for cooking often led him to serve and cook for the members of the church.

Kevin loved the nature, history and mafia channels on television. He could answer almost any question in those topics, particularly the history of the mafia. He loved to barbecue at any family gathering. He would attend the grill with his cousin, Edwin Thomas beside him.

Kevin was preceded in death by his mother-in-law, Mrs. Janie Murray and a cherished brother-in-law, Mr. Randolph Shelton Murray.

Kevin leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Janet Murray-Millard-Devereaux; his mother, Thelma Harper Devereaux of New Brunswick, NJ; his son, Robert (Bobby) Millard III (Munti) of Brooklyn, NY; sisters, Diane McEaddy of Newark, NJ, Yvonne Fuller (James) of Florida and Yolanda Devereaux of New Brunswick, NJ; one brother, Les Devereaux, Jr. (Leslie) of Piscataway, NJ; sister-in-law, Frances Murray of Hillside, NJ; brother-in-law, Tommy Murray of Texas. He also leaves to cherish his memory, three special nephews, Jamie Murray, Christopher Yatesh and Jaison Devereaux and two special nieces, Crystal Dunkers and Erika Fuller; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, relative and friends.
