Reflections of Life

Our Lord saw fit to grant peace and eternal rest to Bobbie Holly Stanfield. Bobbie was born to the proud parents of Mable Scott Ford and the late Robert Stanfield on September 24, 1967 in Presbyterian Hospital in New York City, NY. Bobbie attended Jane Adams High School in the Bronx.

She was a joyful, happy, smiling, laughing affectionate and down to earth caring person. She was always quick to come to the aid of others.

In Bobbie's journey of life she traveled and met many friends along the way that she will never forget. In 1986, she met William Bonds better known as "Big Jim" the love of her life. From that union she conceived her only child, Jaquan Jimmy Stanfield.

Bobbie leaves to mourn her passing and cherish her memories, a loving mother, Mable Scott Ford; stepfather, Hilton Clarke: one son, Jaquan Jimmy Stanfield; four brothers, Micheal Freeman of Lula, Mississippi, Alfonso Scott, Victor Scott and Edward Ford all from the Bronx, one sister, Lajoyce Jackson preceded her in death. One aunt, Earnistine "Mickey" Bradshaw; Pamela Goodman (Jaquan's godmother); a long time friend, Derreka Studwood; two sisters-in-law, Tamika Wade and Larunette Peck from the Bronx; seven nieces, eight nephews, cousins and a host of extended family and friends that loved and cared for Bobbie's ("Big Bob") well being while she journeyed here on earth is gladly appreciated.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*
