Honoring Katrina

Katrina Monique Scriven was born on June 1, 1980 in J.F. Kennedy Hospital in Edison, New Jersey, daughter of the late Marcene Scriven and Arthur Jackson. At the age of one, Katrina lost her mother; she was raised by her grandparents Mary Denson and the late Elder Willie Denson.

She graduated from Rahway High School in 1998. In 1999, she graduated from Katherine Gibbs School with a certificate in Computer Technical Support. She also studied Human Resources Management online at Ashford University.

She was employed at Walmart Distribution Center in Georgia as an Unloader until her untimely passing.

Katrina was a kind, funny and beautiful person with a big heart and would always help those in need. Family and friends who knew her could not say anything negative about her. It was a blessing to have her in our lives. All Katrina wanted to do was to be happy and live her life the best way she could.

Katrina was very knowledgeable about computers and electronics and if you had a problem she knew the answer. She enjoyed music, spending time with family and friends and talking on her cell phone. Her conversations and smile will be missed.

She is resting in her mother's arms, rejoicing and talking to her. "You made it Katrina, you are free, and your pain is gone. No more tears and sorrow. RIP WE LOVE YOU!"

Katrina Monique Scriven entered into the golden gates of heaven on Tuesday, September 17, 2013 at her home in Statesboro, Georgia.

She leaves to mourn her memory, her grandmother, Mary Denson of Metuchen, New Jersey; brother, Ronnell Ayler of Asbury Park, New Jersey; sister, Arlena Williams of Georgia; fiancé, Latoya Butler of Statesboro, Georgia; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins other relatives and friends.

Pall Bearers Family and Friends of Katrina Monique Scriven

Afterglaw

I'd like the memory of me To be a happy one, I'd like to leave an afterglow Of smiles when day is done. I'd like to leave an echo Whispering softly down the ways, Of happy times and laughing times And bright and sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve To dry before the sun Of happy memories that I leave behind, When the day is done. -Helen Lowrie Marshall
