Obituary

Lee Stevenson Smith, Sr. was born May 19, 1962 in New York City. He was one of six children born to the late Dorothy and Richard Smith, Sr. On Saturday, September 21, 2013 Lee was sadly taken away from us.

As a young child, Lee attended public schools in Forest Hills (Queens), New York. As he grew older, he resided between Queens and Brooklyn, New York. From a young age, Lee was a very social person. He loved to laugh and enjoyed being the center of attention. He also enjoyed playing basketball and handball.

Lee spent his young adult years doing a variety of jobs including maintenance work, and gardening. In recent years, Lee worked as a building superintendent in the Bronx, New York.

Lee was extremely caring and exhibited the best intentions for his loved ones. He loved his sons and granddaughter immensely and always looked out for his younger siblings.

In 2008, Lee met Sharee Lakisha Fludd in the Bronx, New York, and the two were married in 2009. He was a very loving and caring husband and father.

Lee was preceded in death by his parents and older brother, Richard Smith, Jr. He will forever be remembered by his wife of four years, Sharee Lakisha Smith; two children, Lee Smith, Jr. and Christopher Tyriek Fludd; one granddaughter, Leeia Starr Smith; one mother-in-law, Katherine Fludd; four younger sisters, Sonya Denise Smith-Randle, Dorothy Antonia Smith, Dorothea Robins Smith, and Wanda Smith; three sisters-in-law, Paulette Logan (Leman), Lashawn Fludd, and Rosalyn Fludd; one brother-in-law, William Randle; six nieces, Ebony, Chantel, Alexis, Tiffany, Torisha, and Deja; seven nephews, Jose, James, Tyrone, Marvin, Daniel, Tory, and Darius; and a host of other family and beloved friends.

My Lord's Way

I'm walking on a lonely road,
A road without an end,
But I know where I'm going,
And I know where I've been.

The road is long and narrow
The sky is dark and gray,
Yet my soul is free now,
For I follow my Lord's way.

Acknowledgement

The family would like to thank each and everyone for the expressions of love shown during the passing of our loved one. Continue to keep us in your prayers.
