Obituary

The sun rose on George Theopolis Carter on July 16, 1937 to the late Ples and Lillie Smith Carter. He was born in Bastrop, Louisiana and educated in the schools of Morehouse Parish.

He moved to New York City in the mid 1950's. He was employed for at least two decades with Mardi Modes, Inc. in the Garment District. After the company dissolved in the late 80's, he worked in the Village of Harlem at various Jazz lounges before setting his roots down at the legendary St. Nick's Pub and Minton's as a bartender. George was a true class act. He was very charismatic and a sharp dresser with a great sense of humor.

He met his wife, Shirley while living in Harlem and the two were wed in 1963. Together they had two children, Robin and Terence and a stepson, Lemore McNeill, Jr.

On September 29, 2013, the sun set on George Carter. He was preceded in death by his parents and brothers, James A. Carter, Jr. and Wiley D. Carter and stepson, Lemore.

Left to cherish his memories are: wife, Shirley D. Carter; children, Robin and Terence Carter; sister, Mattie S. Washington; brother, Dr. Joseph Carter; sisters-in-law, Janine Kinlock and Margie Jenkins; brother-in-law, Marion Legree (Doris); four grandchildren, numerous nieces, nephews, cousins; and a host of other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

*I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
