Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.

Obituary

“He has given us His great and precious promises.” II Peter 1:4

On October 23, 1931, RosaLee White was born in Orange, Virginia, the eighth of twelve children born to the late Henry and Katie White. On Sunday, September 22, 2013, God heard her cry for mercy. He answered that cry, and transitioned her to a room in the new home that He had prepared.

Rose, as she was affectionately called, had a pleasant personality and was easy to get along with. She was baptized as a member of Shady Grove Baptist Church, Orange, Virginia, at an early age. She always loved and considered Shady Grove as her home church. Consequently, she did not join any specific church during the years that she lived in New York. However, she was supportive of many different churches, their annual programs, and gave generously.

Rose was fun loving, enjoyed people and would willingly lend a hand when asked. She liked to cook and sew, and was good at it. She actually made some of the best salmon cakes ever! When she had visitors at the Jewish Home, she always talked about “good” food and what she was going to prepare. When asked about her most recent job as a School Crossing Guard she responded without any hesitation, “I work for NYPD.”

Rose loved her children, Gregory White and Michelle Ford, both who predeceased her. She loved her family, enjoyed family gatherings and out of state visits with other siblings and relatives. She also loved other children and often took care of them while their parents worked.

Rose was not particularly religious, but she had “faith.” From her early days of training, she had the “faith” that God would answer her prayers if she asked believing. And He did answer her prayer for mercy by giving her the rest that she needed; by supplying her needs through the tough time; and by allowing her to show love for others. To those whom she leaves behind, we can honor her by doing no less than she when interacting with each other and others, that is, we can show love, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.

Rose leaves to mourn and cherish her memories one Grandson, Gregory White of Palmdale, California; two sisters, Gwendolyn White and Louise White of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; one brother Elwood White (Florence) of Louisa, Virginia; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. We say to our Grandmother, Sister, Aunt, Cousin, and Friend, “Bye for just now. See you in the morning or for sure at supper time!”

Lovingly submitted,
The Family
