Obituary

Dolores Denise Lattimore, daughter of Willie Ann Lattimore and the late James E. Harris was born on December 23, 1958 in Newark, NJ. She departed this life on Sunday, September 29, 2013 at Alaris Health at St, Mary's in Orange, NJ following a five year battle with Parkinson's at the age of 54.

Dolores graduated from West Side High School located in Newark, NJ in 1976. Dolores attended DeVry Technical Institute and Seton Hall University. Dolores worked for General Motors in Linden, NJ prior to a career in education. Dolores spent twenty years with her Chad School family as a second grade teacher and later the Vice Principal of the high school.

"Dee-Dee" as some would call her had a warm personality with an infectious smile and laugh. She was a wonderful teacher and motivator. She inspired all of her students to be better than average and taught them the importance of education. Dolores was known for her honesty and strength. Dee Dee enjoyed crocheting, cooking, watching TV but most importantly, she enjoyed spending time with her family. She was definitely a fighter and it showed even in her last days.

Dolores was preceded in death by her father, James E. Harris.

Dolores leaves to cherish her memories: her son, Laurence Lattimore; grandson, DeAnthony Lattimore; mother, Willie Ann Lattimore; sister, Darlene Lattimore; brother, James D. Harris; aunt, Cora Lattimore; several nieces and nephews, goddaughter, Jackie Ah-Low, other relatives and friends.

VICE PRINCIPAL

Come To Me

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around you
And whispered, 'Come to me'
With tearful eyes we watched you
And saw you pass away
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*

Memories

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

My life's been full, I savored much.

*Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
