Obituary

Adjowah Robert Beverly (known as Archie) was born March 3, 1971 to the loving parents Joann Anderson and Artis Beverly in New York City. He was born at Roosevelt Hospital.

He attended P.S. 180 and then furthered his education obtaining his GED Diploma.

He was very outspoken and appreciative to the people he loved. Archie also enjoyed riding motorcycles. He was a people person, everywhere he went people loved him. And he was an outstanding dresser.

Growing up Archie played a major roll in his family. He had a smile that would light up a room. Archie had a passion for writing and in his journey he self published a novel “A Betrayed Birth” in 2011. He also had four unpublished novels.

Archie leaves to morn: his mother and friend, Joann Anderson (step father, Jerry); two children, Adjoway and Ashley; fiancée, Theresa and their unborn child; and stepchildren, Lanaya, Laquan, and Lashay. And a special relationship with London; two granddaughters, Tamia and Ashlyn; five sisters, Kenisha, Shavonne, Dominique, Chakaina, and Shatise; god mother, Elaine; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncle, cousins, and friends.

Janaza Prayer

I'd Like.....

*The memory of me
to be a happy one
Allah's grace surrounds
my soul!*

*Let comfort and love abound in all your hearts
Let Heaven be your goal.*

Baby Boy

*As you enter the pearly gates of heaven,
God (Allah) and your sister, Treshia awaits your arrival.
Y'all dance in heaven my angels. Continue to watch over me.
For I love y'all so dearly. I'll truly miss you!
My chain will reconnect one day and I'll be with you again.*

Love, Ma

The last time I talked to you, I wish I would have known. I would have said I love you, and kept you on the phone. If I only had five minutes, the day you passed away, I would have had time to tell you all the things I needed to say. I'd give you one last hug so tight and see your great big smile. I'd kiss your cheek and tell you it's okay to go for now. I'm not the most expressive but it's something you must know. That I've always loved you and I'll miss you more than you'll ever know. But you were gone so quickly, it's time to get your wings. To leave this life behind you, and enjoy all heavens beautiful things. So wait for me in heaven, don't let me come alone. The day the angels come for me, please be there to bring me home.

Love, Ashley and AJ

Adjowah,

*You are my soulmate,
The element that makes me laugh.
In my life stars wouldn't shine if
God didn't make you mine.
I'll love you always.*

Theresa Wynne, Fiance
