

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Ruben Junior Ross, known as “Jr.” or “Shorty”, was born on November 1, 1933 in South Hill, Virginia to the late Ruben Ross and Versie Childress. “Jr.”. He was predeceased by his wife, Mary Sue Piercy-Ross.

Ruben held several jobs such as a truck driver, a miner and his final employment as a Porter Newark Extended Health Care Facility until his retirement. He was a man who loved the outdoors and could be found there as often as he could. He was a member of the Prince Hall Masons.

On Wednesday, October 2, 2013, it was God’s will to call him home to be with his wife of fifty-seven years for his final rest.

He leaves behind to cherish his memories: brother, James Ross of Newark; brothers and sister-in-law, Herman, Charles and Dene Piercy; grandchildren, Yolanda Ore of Newark, Sharonda Richardson (Spann) of Union, Shalonda Herman of Paterson; great granddaughter, Endasia Ore of Newark; great grandsons, Za’ Kai and Doreon Miller of Paterson; and a host of family and friends.
