

Don't Grieve For Me

*Don't grieve for me If my parting For now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call
I turned my back And left it all
I could not stay to laugh, to love, to work or play
Task left undone must stay that way
I found that piece at the close of the day
If my parting has left a void
And fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, ah yes these things I too will miss
Be not burdened the times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine tomorrow
Perhaps my time seem all to brief
Don't lengthen it with undue grief.
And share with me
god wanted me now he set me free.
I have fought a good fight*

Deacon Samuel Young, was born February 7, 1938, the fourth of nine children to the union of Frank Young and Nancy Lourene T. Young of Pawleys Island, SC. Both of his parents predeceased him.

Sammy, as he was affectionately known grew up in the circle of a warm and loving family. He graduated from Howard High School in Georgetown, South Carolina June 1956. He enlisted in the U.S. Navy where he served his country for four years.

He was a devout Christian and a strong believer! His faith never wavered. He was a great man of God, and he endured until the end, even in the last hours as he called upon Jesus Christ and trusted in Christ's will. He did it his way!

On August 17, 1962, he married the former Treva Hayes of South Hill, VA. She preceded him in death. Their union, was blessed with six children, three sons, Terrence Young of East Orange, NJ, Douglas (deceased) Young of East Orange, NJ and Theophilus Young of East Orange, NJ; three daughters, Daphne Young of Fort Valley, Georgia, Sabina Wilson of Irvington, NJ and Joycelyn Thomas of Elizabeth, NJ; eight siblings, Ruth Gaskins (deceased), Sarah Smalls of Philadelphia, PA, Naomi Whitehead/ Johnny Whitehead, Mattie N.D.
