

In Loving Memory

Charles A. Speller

December 5, 1934 - October 5, 2013

Obituary

Charles "Sir Charles" Alexander Speller (78) was born on December 5th, 1934 to the late William Sr. and Earlene Speller.

One of sixteen children, Charles grew up in Newark, New Jersey where he attended East Side High School. He was an honorably discharged veteran of the United States Air Force who served during the Korean War. After graduating college he went on to work for Rutgers University in the Dana Library for 22 years, retiring in 2003.

After retirement he spent much of his time investing in real estate and other endeavors like "Spellers Gold". Those that were close to him could always count on an email full of information on how to get rich!

Charles departed this world on Saturday, October 5th, 2013. He leaves to cherish his memory: 2 nephews, Omar Khayyam and Caliph Herald (Stephanie Herald), 5 Nieces, Nichole Herald-Lee (Stephen Lee), Vena Herald, Daja Herald, Stephanie Speller, Cristal Speller Ricci (Anthony Ricci), 5 great nieces Khadijah Caesar, Tiffany Speller, Sakinah, Karimah, and Atiyah Khayyam, 3 great nephews, Yusef Khayyam, Jeromy and Jermaine Wright, 1 Sister In-Law Kathy Speller and a host of other great-great nieces, nephews, family and lifelong friends.

Uncle Charlie, as he was lovingly known, will truly be missed but he is now.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no tears in a gloom-filled room, Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little – But not for long
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared, Miss me – But let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone,
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to your friends that we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good works,
Miss me – But let me go.*

Acknowledgements

*The family wishes to express their deepest and most sincere thanks to all who shared with them in this time of sorrow.
May God bless and keep you in a most gracious way.*
