My Last Party

When you come to my last party, don't come with faces long, But come with memories that are pleasant, in your heart let there be a song. The place will be full of flowers, and I will be dressed grand, The only thing I shall be sorry for, I will not be able to shake your hand. When you come to my last party, I don't know yet how soon it will be, The daily papers will print the invitations, that everyone might see. I am going to hold it in a church-like place, and no one will be turned away, At the place where I hold my party, many of my friends will come to pray. When you come to my last party, we won't play games, But there will be a register, where you can sign your name. As you stand there and sing my praises, in voices so silently, Of what good things you know about me. When you come to my last party, my Lord will be your host, Because 'tis He 'mongst all my friends, who really loves me most. He bore my Cross at Calvary, he bears my cross today, When you leave He will be with me, to comfort me on my way. When you come to my last part, in spirit I'll be there, And as you stare back at me through closed eyelids, at you I'll stare. And when you say that I look natural, that is as it should be, Because at my last party, who should look more natural than me. I did the best that I knew how, it's up to God to take care of me now.

In Appreciation

We the Harrison-Taylor Family would like to express heart felt thanks to all of our many relatives, friends and our church family who shared their love and concern during such a difficult time.

The many cards, floral arrangements, visitation, food and your sovereign prayers will always be remembered. May God continue to Bless each of you is our most sincere prayer.
