Obituary

The Sunset on Walter Davis October 14, 2013 after a brief illness while at Isabella Nursing Home. Walter was born to the late Ellison Jefferson Davis and Adele Beatrice Corbitt Davis on January 11, 1941 in New York City. Walter was preceded in death by two brothers and one sister, Ellison Jefferson Davis, Jr. (Cookie), Clarence Davis, and Sandra Davis.

On September 11, 1961, Walter married Melvon Audrey Kelley and from that union they had one daughter and three sons.

Walter was educated in the New York City School System. He enjoyed all sports and was an excellent basketball player as a teenager. Walter had various hobbies such as photography, painting, reading, listening to good music, particularly Jazz. He was a sharp dresser. Walter was culturally astute.

Prior to his illness, he worked for Verizon Inc. in New York City.

Walter leaves to mourn: his four children, Walter Davis, Jr. (Connie), Denise Melvon Davis Newkirk (Kelvin), Craig Davis and Malcom Davis; eleven grandchildren and seven great grandchildren; his sister, Adele Davis of Haverstraw, NY; a cousin, Bessie Corbitt Brown; special friend, Joan Harris; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and coworkers.

He will be greatly missed.

Psalm 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked. Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation; There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.
