Obituary

Ida Gillyard, was born August 1, 1916 in Lina, SC she is one of twelve children born to Sam and Minnie McGraw of Lina, SC.

On Monday, October 21, 2013 our dearly beloved daughter departed this earth at 11:59 p.m.

She always said she was waiting on Him and on October 21, 2013 our Lord came to take her home with Him away from this world of pain, suffering, trial and tribulation.

When she was a small girl in SC, she was a member with her family of Sweet Rose Baptist Church where at an early age she was baptized in the name of God. She came to New York City in 1941 and became an active and devoted member of Mount Nebo Baptist Church, where she remained a member until she departed this world.

Ida Gillyard was a loving and devoted member of Mt. Nebo Baptist Church for over fifty years. She leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. We will miss you Ida more than words can explain. You have left so much love for us to share in your memory and we will always love you. Pray for us sinners when you come into your own in heaven. May God take you unto Him and bless you with the love you so much deserve.

She is survived by: a daughter, Marrie Gillyard; two granddaughters, Tanyo Martino and Schae-Vonne D. Walker; seven great-grandchildren, Tyler Walker, Joseph I. Martino, Drew Walker, Philip Walker, Kerris, Kelsy and Grace Walker.

Because The Angels Came

No more grief or sorrow, no more suffering or pain, now there is everlasting peace because the angels came. Only God knows what is best and He gently holds my hand. Guiding me to a better place because the angels came. When the sun rises tomorrow and I answer not my name, Please don't cry Rejoice with me because the angels came. I now can rest in peace as I never could before. answered the gentle knock of the angels at my door. So please don't mourn for me as new wings I now claim, I can take my flight to heaven because the angels came.
