Reflections of Life

Pearlie B. Carter, was born on September 8, 1935 in Morris, Alabama, the second of five children born to William and Mazzie B. (Snow) Carter.

She received her early education in Birmingham, Alabama and graduated from Wenonah High School, and subsequently completed two years of college at Alabama State University. She moved to New Jersey in 1963.

Affectionately known as “Sis” and “Aunty Pearl” she embraced Christianity at an early age, and was such a strong, God-fearing woman. “Sis” worked for Remco Factory for several years and after this gained employment with various families performing domestic services throughout the Northeast. She was employed by the Salmonson family of Massachusetts for over thirty years and retired in 2011.

“Aunty Pearl” loved her family and friends dearly and enjoyed spending time with her family on “Girls Night.” She also enjoyed playing Bingo on Sunday afternoons, she loved traveling and going on cruises and calling friends to check up on them to see how they were doing. She participated in community services where she touched many lives. For over seventeen years her social club, “Just Us Friends” annually served Mothers’ Day dinners to the senior citizens and their families of St. Mary’s Villa in Newark. She continued to display her love of people through repeated acts of kindness and giving heartfelt advice to those who knew her. Her presence, unique mannerisms, her laughter and loving spirit will be missed.

Pearlie B. was preceded in death by her brothers, William Jr., William II and sister, Betty Jean Carter and one grandson Michael E. Murray II.

She is survived by: her beautiful, loving daughter, Susan Richardson-Murray, sweetly known as “Sugar”, and her son-in-law, Michael E. Murray of Hillside, New Jersey. Also left to mourn her death is her one selfless, giving sister Louise Ware of Newark, New Jersey whom she adored. Nephews, Thaddeus (Trisha) Ware of West Orange, New Jersey, Anthony Ware of North Carolina. Niece, Antoinette (Nathaniel) Ware-Cooper of Irvington, New Jersey, God daughter, Felisha Way of Woodbridge, New Jersey and a host of numerous great nieces, great nephews, relatives and friends to cherish her wisdom and memory.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*

Mom

No one could ever fill your shoes

Even now that I'm grown, there are certain times when only my mother will do.

I've discovered over the years that no matter how independent I am,

I'll never outgrow

My need for your smile, your hug and your warmhearted ways

I will always need you, always love you and always be grateful for the wonderful

Woman you are-my mother

Mom I will be forever grateful to you for making me the woman I am today

I will forever love you; cherish you and our times together

Your daughter-your Sugar always

I love you to the end of the earth and back again.

Gone But Not Forgotten

We sat beside your bedside; our hearts were crushed and sore

We did our best to the end, till we could do no more

In tears we watched you sinking

We watched you fade away, and though our hearts were breaking

We knew you could not stay

You left behind some aching hearts, that loved you most sincere

We never shall and never will forget Our Dear

With Love, from Your Family

Auntie Pearl-AKA "My Other Mother" I will always love you and keep you near in my heart. I miss you so much, for now it's so long, I'll see you again

Niece, Mrs. Antoinette Ware-Cooper
