"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith"
2 Timothy 4:7

On the morning of October 23, 2013, God called one of His faithful soldiers home. Robert Charles Hallmon (known to many as "Sonny"), son of the late Sam and Ethel Lu Hallmon, was born in Damascus, Georgia. He was the fourth of thirteen children. He is preceded in death by two sisters, Doresy Mae Morgan, Roselee Ramsey, one brother, Richard Hallmon and a brother-in-law, Nickie Bradley.

Robert relocated to New Jersey in 1960 where he started his career at Wakefern Food Corporation in Elizabeth, NJ. Robert held numerous other positions over the years ending with retirement due to illness.

Robert accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior at an early age at Mount Zion Missionary Baptist Church in Damascus, Georgia under the leadership of the late Rev. Nells. After relocating to New Jersey, Robert transferred his membership to High Hope Missionary Baptist Church in East Orange, where he was a member under the guidance of the late Pastor Lewis Grant. Later, joining the Saint John Baptist Church in the mid 2000's, Sonny was a diligent and faithful member. You could often see him in a seat on the left side of the church on a Sunday, or at Wednesday night bible study which he almost never missed.

On a daily basis you could find Sonny at Dunkin Donuts with a coffee in hand discussing the hot topic of the day. He was a lover of the New York Mets, Checkers, Western/Crime shows, and all of the day time televisions Courtroom shows. Sonny was known as fun loving, joyful spirited, protector and provider for his family.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Barbara Hallmon. He leaves to cherish his memories, daughter, Pamela Hawkins and her husband Charles Haynes; son, Eric and wife Marion Hawkins; three grandchildren, Ebonee, Elisha, and Erika; siblings, Esther Mae of Fort Meyers, Florida, Rufus (Inez) of Albany, Georgia, Mae Lois (Alfred) also of Albany, Georgia, Melvin of Jacksonville, Florida, Mollie Louise (Willie) of Fort Meyers, Florida, Carrie Mae (James) of Tallahassee, Florida, Mary Frances of Fort Meyers, Florida, Lela (Grady) of Fort Meyers, Florida, Nancy Jo (Nathan) of Fort Meyers, Florida; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul;

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness

For His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley

Of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me;

Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me

Thou prepares a table before me

in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil,

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me

all the days of my life: and I will dwell

in the house of the Lord forever.

In Gratitude

The family appreciates the love, care, prayers and all acts of sympathy and kindness extended to us during our bereavement. Your kind expressions of friendship will always remain in our memories. May God bless each of you, and keep you in His care.
