Obituary

Jacqueline A. Campbell Bannister, of New York, New York passed away on Wednesday, October 30, 2013 at Mount Sinai Hospital. Jacqueline was born on January 26, 1955 in Harlem, New York to the late Marian Braithwaite and Herbert Jenkins.

Jacqueline was also known as Jackie, Me-One, Granny, Wong, Granny Grits, Mommy and Grandma. As a child Jackie grew up with one brother Alvin who predeceased her and one sister Doreen. Jacqueline received her education in the New York City Public School System. Post high school she attended Toro College and the College of Staten Island. Jacqueline was baptized and confirmed at St. Andrews Episcopal church where she was a church school student, member of the junior choir and member of the Episcopal Church Women's group. Jackie never forgot her early Christian training and believed in Prayer.

Jackie married Kenneth Campbell Sr. before God at St. Andrews church and from that union there were four children. Trina who predeceased her, Lahteasha, Kenneth Jr. and Shawn. Years later Jackie remarried Raphael Bannister who predeceased her at St. Andrews Church. Jackie's professional career briefly started at Harlem Hospital and then on to Greater Harlem Nursing home where she currently worked for over 37 years starting out as a certified nursing assistant, rehabilitation assistant, ward clerk and receptionist. She was also a union delegate for 1199.

Jackie had an honest, humble, and happy heart. She had a "keep it moving" mentality about life and lived for her family, children, and grandchildren, whom she so proudly referred to as her "grands". Her genuine smile, contagious laughter, and amazing food brought her family together. She had a passion for cooking and was famous for her potato salad. She was also famous for her sold out annual bus trips that brought so many together. Jackie also enjoyed visiting the casinos with family, either on weekend trips to Atlantic City or random spur of the moment trips to a nearby casino.

If Jackie wasn't working, she was planning the next way to get her family together; the next bus trip, the next cruise, the next family gathering, the next holiday, or the next visit from her "grands" whom she adored with all her heart. With her passion for cooking and love for her family, Jackie's favorite time of year was Thanksgiving. She loved nothing more than bringing her entire family together under one roof. The common thread throughout Jackie's life was faith and family. Her heart's work was in creating fond and irreplaceable memories with and for those she loved, which was so many.

She leaves to cherish these fond memories: one daughter, Lahteasha (Andy); two sons, Kenneth Jr. (Condeshia) and Shawn (Jaime); two sisters, Doreen and Shirley; four brothers, Herbie Jr., Halbert, Lavert and Cyril; one brother-in-law, Lowell; seven grandchildren, Dejeune, Ani'a, Jaylen, Alannah, Ellianna, Anaila and Anina; three aunts, Ismay, Ermine and Isaline; one uncle, Merill Nanton, Jr.; as well as a host of loving nieces, nephews cousins, godchildren, extended family and friends.

You have fought a good fight, You have finished your course, You have kept the faith:

Come To Me

*God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered "Come to me"
The days of toil and nights of pain
The weary hours have passed
The patient gentle worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Day and night we stood by her
And saw her in pain,
Anxiously awaiting her cure
But our waiting was in vain.
God who knoweth all things best
Eased her suffering, gave her rest
She is gone but not forgotten,
Never will our memories fade
Sweetest thoughts of her will ever linger
Round the place where she rests.*
