Obituary

Albertha Vickers, was born in Atlantic City, New Jersey, on February 24, 1922. Her parents were David and Agnes Vickers. Her mother died when she was eight months old. She and her sister, Naomi were raised by their grandmother, Martha Tilghman. Naomi was deceased in 1982. Albertha graduated from Pleasantville High School in New Jersey.

At an early age she was baptized and became a member of Progressive Tabernacle Baptist Church in AC. In 1942, she moved to New York City. Her two children are, Joyce and David.

Albertha was employed by the Health and Hospitals Corporation for twenty-eight years and retired in 1983. She attended various churches in Manhattan and the Bronx and in 2006, became a member of Carolina Baptist Church. She was an artist, seamstress, and loved to travel. But she especially enjoyed socializing with her family.

She was a quiet, giving, lovely, kind and selfless person, she was an example of what a Christian was.

She leaves to cherish her memories: two children, David (wife, Audrey) and Joyce (husband, Prince) mate, Patrick; one sister, Costella; nieces, Iler and Sherrie; grandchildren, Tyren, Rickael, Lori and Corey; special daughter, Tashe; and a host of family and friends.

Victoriously

Psalm 34:17,18

*The righteous cry out, and the Lord hears them;
he delivers them from all their troubles.*

The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.

My Granma

*A Beautiful soul
A Phenomenal Woman
The Matriarch of our family
Everyone's mother and grandmother
The glue that keeps us together*

My Granma

*A Selfless woman
A Classy woman
She has always been there for all
From raising children
To picking us up when the world has given up on us*

My Granma

*A woman who always had a kind word
Giving us wisdom and guidance
Putting others before herself*

My Granma

*My mother's mother
A Queen
A Goddess
And now my angel*

My Granma

*May her class
Kind words
Wisdom
And Guidance
Live in all our hearts
Forever more
My Granma*

Lovingly submitted by, Lori Cherry
