Obituary

Lincoln A. Jonah was born to the late parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph and Mirian Jonah in Kinston Jamaica, West Indies on July 18, 1930.

Jonah was reared and educated in Kinston Jamaica, WI. He migrated to the United States of America in 1960.

Jonah was employed as a Human Service Tech. at Greystone State Hospital for twenty-three years. He also worked at Organon Pharmaceutical for twenty years. After his retirement, he enjoyed the fruits of his years by going to the Horse Races and watching Soccer and listening to Jazz, Reggae and the choirs of Rev. Jimmy Swaggart

Jonah was known to many of his friends as (Spoon and Sunny).

Jonah left to be with the Lord and Savior. Those who remained to cherish and mourn his death: his wife, Hattie Jonah; four sons, Donovan Maurice, Leonard and Clinton; three daughters, Elaine McLennon, Maureen Jonah and Lorraine Jonah; a host of grand and great grandchildren; two sisters, Audrey Lewis and husband, Thelma Jonah, one sister preceded him in death, Peggy Jonah; one brother, Vinnie Jonah; two special and devoted friends, Mr. Errol Ellis and Larry Bailey.

Life Reflections

Dear Pop

We know that you are smiling
down on us right now.

Yes we know that you are in a better place.

The Lord has promised you that there will be no more pain and suffering in your new home.

We will miss your kind
words and gentle smile.

For: My Husband, My Friend

Thank you for your love, time, and care.
And always being there. Thank you for that very special touch and loving me so very much.
Thank you for your special ways and you forever

Thank You

The family would like to thank every one for your kind expressions of sympathy shown by your visitations, cards and prayers, during the time of

Rest Easy Sonny

God saw you were tired
And he did what he knew best to do.
Whispering come to me and rest.
He closed those shining eyes and from earthly world sorrows, sickness
Jonah, Jonah, where are you going?
To the land of the blessed.

Love you Uncle Sonny
