Obituary

Linda Lewis was born October 10, 1951 in Staten Island, New York. Her parents were the late Dorothy and Roy Valentine.

She attended Port Richmond High School located in Staten Island and graduated in 1969. Linda went on to pursue a career in administrative services. She worked in New York for a major bank and for Con Edison as a customer service representative for almost ten years. She went on to work for several companies throughout the tri-state area.

In 1972, Linda was blessed to have her first child, Barry McCombs who was born in New York. Shortly afterward she met Herb Lewis and from that union two children, Rori Lewis and Natasha Lewis were born. The Lewis family moved to New Jersey in 1973 and settled in Plainfield.

Linda enjoyed music, dancing, making crafts and most of all being with family and friends. She cherished her children and relentlessly worked to provide a nurturing, caring home.

Linda leaves to cherish her memory her children, including her son, Barry McCombs and daughters, Rori Lewis (Andre Owens) and Natasha Lewis (Ivan Morales). She is mourned by her sisters, LaVerne Northern and Dorothy Poole and brothers-in-law, Melvin Northern and Michael Poole; her four grandchildren, Khaire Arrington, Khala Arrington, Inyah Morales and Imani McCombs will cherish fond memories of their Nana; her nieces and nephews, Melvin Northern, Derrick Northern, the late Shana Northern, Allison Poole, Eneisha Logan and Michael Poole will miss their aunt. She will be remembered by her cousins, her best friend, Debbie Myers; and a host of other friends.

*For a mother who is so full of love
What I'll always remember about you is How you've never held back...*

*Not on hard work,
Or speaking your mind,
Not on taking care of your kids,
Or giving good advice,
Or being really firm
Whenever you needed to be...
And you've never, ever held back
On showing your love.*

*I couldn't have made it
This far without you,
And I know you'll always
Be with me wherever I go.*

Thank You!

On behalf of the family we would like to thank all of you for all of your love, prayers and support during this season in our lives. It's our prayer that God would continue to bless all of you.
