Reflections of Life

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

John 14:1-4

Robert Banister Garner, Jr., was born to Robert B. Garner, Sr. and Betty Jean Garner in Washington DC on October 17, 1958.

Robert was educated in the Washington DC Public School system. He furthered his education in Harper Ferry Job Corps Center where he was trained for carpentry and welding. He worked for many companies and corporations. Robert was known by his family for being funny and loving. His second calling should have been a comedian. Robert loved boxing and was a true die hard "Redskin" fan.

Robert was a member of the Mount Horeb Baptist Church where he loved the Wednesday night bible study.

Robert was predeceased by his father, Robert B. Garner, Sr., mother, Betty Jean Garner and daughter, LaQuanda Johnson.

Robert departed this life on December 4, 2013 at Providence Hospital.

Robert leaves to cherish his memory: his five siblings, Jacqueline and (Johnny) Sledge, Jerome Garner, Linda Garner, Betty Jean Garner and Darryl Garner; three aunts, Yvonne and (Sonny) Carter, Carolyn and (Fred) Buckwater, Lynette Mundy; Special friend, Sonya Cobbs also known as Baby Girl; and a host of family, other relatives and friends.

Benediction

*Lord give me the grace to accept life right where it has put me,
and help me to over come the fear that would waste my days.
Give me the wisdom and desire to make everyday count for you.
Life matters make the most of it!*
