

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
A special thank you to Chimene Park for her support.

Obituary

The late Barbara Green was born to Verbena and Edward Hogans on April 21, 1940 in Newark, New Jersey. Second child of three.

She was educated in the Newark Public School system and was a member of Metropolitan Baptist Church where she attended Sunday School.

Barbara later married Albert Green and from this union four daughters, Pamela, Diane, Sonya and Tanya were born. She was a very private person and worked as a Bus Driver for several bus companies including the East Orange Head Start and the West Orange Board of Education.

Barbara was a very caring and devoted mother to her four girls and they will always remember her BBQ's where she would have her camcorder in hand. She extended her care to her grandchildren and even more to her great grandchildren. Barbara knew the secret to bringing the family together, it was food, and she would happily prepare her famous macaroni and cheese and have everyone over for dinner, she will forever be missed.

We bow to the will of God who saw fit to remove from our midst one that we loved dearly. Barbara departed this life on December 10, 2013 at St. Michael's Medical Center with her daughters at her bedside.

Barbara was preceded in death by her daughter, Diane Green, granddaughter, Atajah Coleman and sister, Beverly Wallace.

She leaves to mourn and cherish her memory: her daughters, Pamela Green, Sonya Green and Tanya Green; mother, Verbena Hogans; grandchildren, Latifa Green, Sameerah Green, Lateef Green, Glen Green and Shaka Green; great grandchildren, Tahanna Hudson, Baheerah Hudson, Hope Green, Dira Green, Sameerah Carey, Destiny Gray and Seth Green; brother, Donald Hogans; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends.
