Reflections of Life

Ophelia Cleo Deavereaux Lusane was born July 13, 1937 in Portsmouth, VA to the late Johnnie Deavereaux, Sr. and Magalene (Cuffie) Deavereaux.

Ophelia attended Portsmouth Public Elementary School and completed to the 11th grade in Riddick Weaver High School in Portsmouth, VA. She was employed by Casio Manufacturers where she was a hard-worker and retired from.

After marrying the love of her life, Charlie Lusane in 1957, they moved to Paterson, NJ where most of the family followed. Although they had no children of their own they spent a lot of time with their nieces and nephews. In 2000, she relocated to Somerset, NJ to be closer to her sister and brother.

Ophelia was a very private person but loved to dance and hang at Casinos with her husband and attend family events. She was a loving and devoted wife, sister, and most of all an aunt. She was a loving person who would give you anything she had if you asked.

Ophelia was called home on Saturday, December 7, 2013 at the Franklin Health Care Center in Franklin Township, NJ.

She was predeceased by her parents, Johnnie and Magalene Deavereaux, her husband, Charlie Lusane, three brothers, Johnnie Deavereaux, Jr., George Deavereaux and Richard Deavereaux and two sisters, Mary (Deavereaux) Ramsey and Evelyn (Deavereaux) Babbs.

She leaves to cherish her memories to her sister, Annie Deavereaux Croom of New Brunswick, NJ; three brothers, Leroy Deavereaux of Lodi, NJ, Charles Deavereaux of Paterson, NJ and Frederick Deavereaux of Baltimore, MD; one special sister-in-law, Yvonne Deavereaux; and a host of nieces, nephews who she loved dearly and other relatives.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
