Life Reflections

John Edward Quick was born on July 27, 1949 in Dundalk, Maryland, son of the late John L. Quick and Eva Mc Crimmon Quick. He was raised in Jersey City, New Jersey and attended the Jersey City Public School system, graduating from Dickerson High School in the Class of 1963. John has lived in Rahway since 1974.

John served his country as a Sergeant in the United States Air Force from 1969 to 1973.

He was employed as a Mail Handler for the United States Postal Service in Jersey City for 31 years, retiring in 2005. John had a very special relationship with his co-workers at N.J.I. and B.M.C Mail Center. He was called “Quick” by his co-workers.

“Johnny,” as he was affectionately called by his family, enjoyed watching football, listening to jazz music, writing poetry, assembling car models and going to car shows. He also enjoyed cooking and would experiment with different foods. He would cook special dishes for his family.

Although Johnny wasn’t a member of a church, he faithfully studied the Bible and believed that Jesus Christ was his Lord and Savior. He was a very kind person who was always willing to help those in need.

John was predeceased by his brother, Leo Quick in 2009.

John Edward Quick departed this earthly life on Monday, December 9, 2013 at home.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his sister, Belinda Farmer of Jersey City; devoted companion, Seema Chiplonkar; he was a father figure to: Sheetal and Sandeep Chiplonkar; uncle, McIver McCrimmon; aunt, Marvis Mc Crimmon of Wilmington, North Carolina; nieces: Dayna Sims-Faulk, Shanelle and Tiffany Shamblee, Sheri-Yvonne Sims-Johnson and Janine Farmer; nephews: Sieve and Mossa Farmer, and Rashawn Shamblee; and a host of cousins, other relatives and dear friends.

*Though you’re gone you’re not forgotten
Your place on Earth can never be filled
We shall keep your memory sacred.*

Lovingly submitted,
The Family

"Where Our Sympathy Expresses Itself Through Sincere Service"

I'll Be with You Always

*To those I love and those that love me.
When I'm gone release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do,
you mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
be happy that we had so many years.*

*I gave you my love, you can only guess,
How much you gave me happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I travel alone.
So grieve a while for me,
If grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part.*

*I won't be far away, for life goes on,
So if you need me, call and I will come,
Though you can't see me or touch me.
I'll be near. And then when you must come this way
Alone I'll greet you with a smile and say
Welcome You Home!*
