

The Glorious Morning Light

*By the Glorious
Morning Light
And by the Night
When it is still ...
The Guardian Lord
Hath not Forsaken thee
Nor is He displeased
And verily the Hereafter
Will be better for thee
Than the present.*

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Donald Edwards was born on June 8, 1937 in Newark to Wilbert (Bojack) and Elizabeth Betty Edwards. His parents and three brothers, Jingle, Marty and Michael Edwards predeceased him.

He was a graduate of Charlton Elementary School in Newark, NJ and South Side High School (now known as Malcolm X-Shabazz).

He was a graduate of Essex County College in 1978 where he obtained his Bacholars degree in Psychology and Masters degree in History and provided retirment counseling services at Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey. He was a professor at Essex County College teaching history before he retired.

Donald was a warm and loving person who lived a full and interesting life. He was an avid reader and had a wicked sense of humor. He was a member of The National Smithsonian Museum of Art and National Geographic Museum member. He loved playing the New Jersey Lottery and playing chess and cards.

Donald leaves to celebrate his life, his sister, Mattie B. Revel (Brooklyn, NY), loving nieces, Yolanda Mitchell, Jackie Edwards, Yvette Edwards, cousins, Shirley White, Jessie Marshall, Kassim Coleman (Gail), Tanya Westry, Tracey Brandon and Marion Brandon and his devoted aide, Michelle Dunkley and a host of family and friends.
