

Her Journey's Just Begun

*Don't think of her as gone away
Her journey's just begun.
Life holds so many facets
This earth is only one.
Just think of her resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years.
Think how she must be wishing
That we could know today
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away
And think of her as living
In the hearts of those she touched
For nothing loved is ever lost
And she was loved so much.*

Obituary

Lula Belle also known as “Lutu”, was born on December 7, 1945 in Indianola, Mississippi to the late Lucious and Pearlie White. God opened his arms to her on December 17, 2013.

Lula attended Carver Elementary School in Mississippi and went on to Dentry High School where she graduated. Lula's first job was at a local store as a manager. She then went back to school in Newark, NJ at Essex County College to become a Armed Security Officer. Lula worked for SOS Security where she retired in 2007.

Lutu was known for her favorite saying "damn". Throughout her life you can always find her at a gospel show by herself. She loved reading and puzzle books. Lu cherished the moment she got to see her favorite singer BB King perform at NJPAC.

Lula Belle leaves to appreciate her memories: two sisters, Doris Wymys and Rosemary White; five daughters, Corliss, Monica, Cornella, Mia, and Shevonne; three nephews, Timothy, Michael, and Ellis; nineteen grandchildren, sixteen great grandchildren; and a host of relatives and friends.
