

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*

Obituary

Rosevera Y. Phillips, was born on June 5, 1947 to the late James and Florrie Lightfoot in Newark, NJ.

As a young girl she joined the Hopewell Baptist Church where she was baptized. She attended Madison Elementary School and West Side High School in Newark.

Rose devoted her time to helping others and served on many committees doing community work.

Rose was married to Harry F. Phillips, who preceded her in death.

Rose also worked as a supervisor for Delaney Hall for five years before her illness. Later in life Rose joined New Dawn Baptist Church and was a devoted member.

Rose’s loving memory will forever be cherished by: Deborah Y. Williams, her sister of Newark, NJ; two sons, Emile R. Phillips, Sr. of Maryland and Jerome A. Bobo of Maryland; two daughters, Rhoda Phillips, who preceded her in death and Kanasha R. Foster of Virginia; her grandchildren, Rhoda Phillips, Emile D. Phillips, Frankie Phillips, Jeremy Phillips, Murray M. Duncan, of Delaware, Emile Phillips, Jr. and Malik Phillips. One great grandchild, Samaya Phillips; two nieces, Florrie O’Loughlin and Yvonne Lightfoot of Newark, NJ; one nephew, Zhyree R. Williams of Florida; and a host of other family relatives and church family members and friends.
