Obituary

Tamara Velez Taylor, 52, entered into eternal peace on Wednesday, December 19, 2013, at Lincoln Hospital.

Tammy was born to Iler Taylor and Grover Taylor (deceased) on January 27, 1961. She attended New York City Public Schools and went on to join the Army Reserve.

Tammy was employed at NYCHA (Taft Projects) as a Clerical Assistant. She also worked at Palladia Inc. (Battered Women's Shelter) as a Safety Monitor/Clerk and was later promoted to Senior House Monitor.

Tammy was a beautiful, fun-loving, caring and sensitive person. She was admired and respected by all who knew her. She was mother/friend/counselor to her extended "Manida" family. To know Tammy was to love her. The outpouring of love and support shown during her hospitalization truly reflected how special she was. We often joked that she was "The Mayor of Manida". We will miss that "special something" that you had and we will especially miss you doing the "running man" for each of our birthdays.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her mother, Iler Taylor; her loving children, Tavon, Duane, Tashe, Tiara, JaQuan and Tiana; her husband, Clinton Adams; four grandchildren, Taylor, Tajah, Trinity and Ezekiel; two sisters, Tanya Morant and Tara Taylor; three brothers, Darren Taylor, Rickey Taylor (deceased) and Sean Taylor; her aunt, Sherrie Teachey; her cousin/special sister, Lenee Huston; and a host of family and friends.

My body is gone, but my spirit is right here with each and every one of you. I loved my life good, bad and indifferent. There are many things I could have said, should have said but God knows what was best for me. I've lived my life and I have loved the life that I lived. Don't cry for me because God says: Weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning.

A Final Farewell

*I would trade all of my tomorrows just for yesterday,
Just to plan out how I could talk to you and things that I would say
I would thank you for being the blessing that encompassed my heart
I would thank you for your light that kept me from the dark
I owe you so much I could never repay
I can only send love forever your way*

*And on that fateful day when your spirit attached to wings
The heavens opened up and the angels start to sing
Your heart could take no more and your soul was brought to peace
Now every pain you felt seemed to fade away and cease*

*I'd give anything and everything to see your pretty smile
To feel your hug, to feel your touch, and even those pretty brown eyes
For we know that you would want us rejoicing
Even dancing in your name
To know your life was lived to the fullest, not one thing taken in vain*

*So when at night I say my prayers and go to sleep
I thank the Heavens for the Angel who will watch over me
To keep a watchful eye and a hand that will cover
Protect me my angel, the one I call my mother.*

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to express their deepest appreciation and gratitude for all the kindness shown to them in their time of sorrow.
