Reflections of Life

Robert Singletary was born February 28, 1942 to Clara (Davis) and Gland Singletary in Bladenboro, NC. He was one of ten children. Robert was called to his reward on December 16, 2013.

Robert came to New York in 1961 where he met and courted Gloria Ravenell. They sealed their commitment in 1964 and from this union they were blessed with four children: John, Douglas, Robert Jr, and Kathleen.

Robert was predeceased by his parents, Clara and Gland Singletary; his two sons: Douglas and Robert Jr., and two sisters: Janice Gerald and Thelma Singletary.

Robert was educated at the Spaulding Monroe School in NC. He worked for private Sanitation in Long Island City. He was quite an entrepreneur, he was always selling something. He was known affectionately as “Big Robert”, “Stick Man” and “Bob”. He was well known in his neighborhood for sitting in his car watching out for his neighbors.

Robert leaves to cherish found memories his companion of fifty-two years/wife of forty-nine years, Gloria Ravenell-Singletary; his son, John F. Singletary; two daughters, Kathleen D. Singletary and Robin Menchion; five grandchildren, five great-grandchildren; four sisters, Clara Oates (David), Ethel Griffin (Cleveland), Dorether Dickerson (Quinn), all of Bladenboro, NC and Velma Price (Bobby -deceased) NYC; three brothers, Richard Singletary (Dulcina), Levy Singletary and Jerry Singletary (Clara Ann) all of Bladenboro, NC; two uncles, Ephraim Davis and S. G. Davis; one aunt, Adeline Banner, one brother-in-law, Donald Bennett; two godchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Lovingly Submitted by the family.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.

-Helen Lowrie Marshall
