Reflections of Life

Allan Alexander "Brownie" Edie was born in the Parish of St. Andrews, Jamaica on March 21, 1951 to the proud parents, Samuel Alexander Edie and Laura Kenita (Esty) Edie.

Allan attended New Day Primary School. After school and on weekends, he worked at the Constant Springs Golf Course as a Caddy. After graduation from New Day School, he was learning to do tiling. His first trade was a Tiler. He also worked with Federal Recording Studio. His final job in Jamaica was at the Tobacco Company before migrating to the United States. Upon his arrival in the U.S.A. he completed a course in the medical field, and worked as a Certified Nurses Assistant.

Allan's passion was sports. He could tell you the names of all players whether it was golf, hockey, soccer cricket, or basketball.. He also liked to watch the History channels, which he found to be very educational.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Samuel Alexander Edie and Laura Kenita Edie; and brother, Patrick Edie.

He kept his faith until the end and passed away peacefully leaving daughters, Paula of England, and Nickesha of Jamaica; sisters, Winnifred (Cherry) and Pearline (Plummy) both of Ridgefield Park, NJ; brothers, Walter (Lucky), Edward (Bully) and Samuel (Rupert); Uncle Victor and Aunt Lyn all of Jamaica; granddaughter, Kelis of England; grandsons, Khameron of England and Khemaal of Jamaica; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends and neighbors.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
