Obituary

Reverend Henry Marshall was born on August 22, 1927 in Albany, Georgia. He was the only child of the late Ms. Corinne Watkins.

He met the first lady and the love of his life, the late Mrs. Lorraine Marshall, and they married on October 21, 1961. They were happily married for over fifty years. What an amazing blessing. They had no children from that union, but the Lydia Baptist Church was their children.

He retired from Delavan Auto Body in Bloomfield, NJ around 2003. He took pride in the work he performed. He always gave his best.

Rev. as he was affectionately called, along with Sister Marshall was devoted members of Mars Hill Baptist Church. She served as an Usher and Secretary and he was ordained as a Deacon and then a Minister.

He founded Lydia Baptist Church on April 27, 1975 which was started in his home with only three paying members, as he would say. The church was then moved to the current location today. Rev. through GOD, his skills and hard labor has made Lydia Baptist Church what it is today, SOLID! He was so proud of how GOD has truly blessed Lydia. He was truly a man of GOD and taught us the word and drilled it in us.

Rev. led by example and would not ask you to do something that he wouldn't do. He always help out with everything in the church. He was the handyman at Lydia and proud of it. He truly showed us unconditional love all the time. He has been ministering for over forty years.

Rev. became ill later in his life and through his sickness as he was in and out of hospitals, he was still ministering wherever he was, either preaching or singing songs of praises. GOD called him home on December 23, 2013. As he waited patiently for the angels, I'm sure the Lord said, welcome home Reverend Marshall, my faithful servant. Well Done.

Reverend Marshall leaves, to cherish his memory and legacy, a host of relatives, friends and The Lydia Baptist Church family who will miss him dearly and deeply.

“Servant of GOD well done”
