Obituary

Beverly M. Jackson, was born on May 19, 1939 to the late Harry Francis Jackson and Maragret Jackson. She took her flight to life eternally on Monday, January 6, 2014 in Rochelle Park, NJ.

Beverly resided in Passaic, NJ all of her life and attended school in both New York and Passaic.

Beverly worked for Unemployment Services and Shultons for a number of years. She retired from Beth Israel Hospital after working as a Home Health Aide for many years.

Beverly professed her faith in God, through his son, Jesus, at an early age. She was a member of the Calvary Baptist Church of North Jersey at Garfield and she loved her Pastor, Rev. Dr. Calvin McKinney. Beverly was a socialite in her time. She enjoyed the company of others, especially her family. She was an active member of the former 20+2 Social Club and loved to play BINGO and cards. Beverly loved to be in the know and would be quick to ask; who, what, where, and how and would end her statements with "get out of here."

"Bev", as she was affectionately called, is preceded in death by her parents, Hary Francis and Maragaret Jackson, brothers, Theodore "Joe Joe" and Harry Jackson, sisters, Michaline Corbett, Carol Katie Jackson, and Elaine Bryant, and daughter, Teri White.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her daughters, Patricia Jackson (son-in-law Wille Cleveland Roberts, deceased), Roxanne Cunningham both of Passaic, NJ and Felicia Norris (son-in-law Jeffrey Norris) of Lilburn, GA; sons, Edward White, Jr. of Passaic, NJ and Trent White (daughter-in-law Wakiena White) of Elmwood Park, NJ; sisters-in-law, Carol Jackson and Loretta Williams; brother-in-law, David White; godsons, Man Reid and Chaz Levister; fifteen grandchildren; seven great grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Beverly will be missed, however her memory lives on through her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren.

Blue Skies

God hath not promised skies always blue, Flower-strewn pathways all our lives through; God hath not promised sun without rain, Joy without sorrow, peace without pain. But God hath promised strength for the day, Rest for the labor, light for the way, Grace for the trials, help from above, Unfailing sympathy, undying love.

Acknowledgements

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation every thought and act of kindness extended towards them during this time. May God bless you all.
