Obituary

Cecil Devin Sievers, was born on August 5, 1983 in Harlem, New York to Cecil and Marilyn Huggins-Sievers. He was the youngest of his parents two children.

Devin was a learner from the beginning. He could sit for hours seemingly absorbed in playing cars or watching a show, and yet be filing his little brain with tons of information that he could hear around him. His formal learning began at the Modern School in Harlem and when his parents moved to Hillsdale, New Jersey, he attended Ann Blanc Smith School. Devin would follow his brother, Michael to Pascack Valley High School. After graduation, his desire to learn didn't end. Devin was a thinker; a philosopher of sorts. He wanted to be great and would strive to make everyone around him great also. As a young boy, he always wanted to follow his older brother, Michael, around where ever he went. Since Devin was so small, Michael ended up carrying Devin in his arms everywhere he went because he couldn't walk fast enough. Devin's love for his brother was an eternal love and now they are together once again.

Devin was a quiet, sweet, yet strong willed child that showed signs of loyalty right from his early years. His friends and family will always remember him for his unique sense of humor and for the loyalty that they had for one another. Devin was one of the most giving human beings that many would ever come across in their lifetime. He was always generous and thoughtful. He would always help people out no matter who they were or what they asked for. He will always be in our hearts as a good person who has brought much joy to our lives. We will always remember the good times we shared with him and his spirit will be watching over us forever.

Devin leaves behind to cherish his memory: his loving parents, Cecil and Marilyn Sievers; his beloved girlfriend and partner in life, Rachel; his beloved niece, Isabella Sievers; his six aunts and five uncles and a host of cousins, friends and neighbor. He was preceded in death by his brother, Michael.

"Lets try to live this life great because you know, we can't do it again. We can say sorry, but we can't change what happened. This is it, we have to do this our best way."

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.*

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

*Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
