Obituary

John (Doc) Carter, 60, of Montclair, NJ passed away on Thursday, January 2, 2014.

He was born in Glen Ridge, NJ, on December 7, 1953, to the late Ambrose and Addie Carter.

As a teen, John ran track and graduated from Montclair High School. Although he grew up in New Jersey, he enjoyed spending time with family in North Carolina.

John's laughter was infectious and his witty remarks were never in short supply.

John's jovial and caring personality shined through in his work as a home health aide as he brought a smile and compassion into the homes of those he looked after.

His lifelong passion was photography and he enjoyed snapping spontaneous pictures of family and friends.

He will be lovingly remembered as the son of the late Ambrose and Addie Carter and brother of the late Barbara Washington. John was survived by two nephews; Frederick Eley, Jr. and Mark Eley; stepdaughter, Nykole Faulk; and a host of loving aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

"The Measure of A Man"

Not - How did he die? But - How did he live?
Not - What did he gain? But - What did he give?

These are the things that measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.

Not - What was his station? But - had he a heart?
And - How did he play his God-given part?

Was he ever ready with a word of good cheer?
To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?

Not - What was his church? Not - What was his creed?
But - Had he befriended those really in need?

Not - What did the sketch in the newspaper say?
But - How many were sorry when he passed away?

These are the things that measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.
