Obituary

Wendy Wallace, 51, passed away at Hoboken University Medical Center with her loving family by her side on Sunday, January 5, 2014. She was born in Baltimore, MD and was a lifelong resident of Jersey City, NJ.

Wendy, actively pursuing her Masters, obtained her Bachelors Degree from St. Peter's University in Jersey City and was a Certified Substance Abuse Counselor, changing lives throughout New Jersey. Passionate about her career, Wendy's touch was felt far and wide as she had a genuinely humble and generous spirit. She was down to earth, nonjudgmental and had a way about her that was simply magnetic. Incredibly close to her daughter Ghana and precocious grandson, Ezra, she enjoyed helping him to play games on her computer / phone and singing him to sleep during their frequent weekend visits. She enjoyed following popular television series; it was routine to watch Sunday night TV with her son, Amin. In constant contact with Amir, her son living in Virginia, their relationship was one steeped in love, understanding and mutual support; distance was no matter as they spoke almost daily, with visits as frequent as possible. Wendy loved to travel, most recently visiting Labadee, Haiti with a trip to Greece on the horizon. A 'foodie', she often spent Sunday evenings at her nieces home; Eryca cooking and / or baking her favorite cookies, while Talib and Ty, her nephew and grand-niece, kept her in stitches - her laugh was nothing short of contagious. Bonded to her brothers, Wendell and Keith, they kept each other grounded with Wendy and Wendell almost like twins - he would have done anything for her. She also shared a particular closeness with her Uncle Junie (Eddie Chavis Jr.). It goes without saying that Wendy adored her extended family and was often the glue that held us all together. Her presence will be sorely missed.

She was predeceased by her beloved mother, Dorothy Wallace née Chavis, father, Floyd Wallace and sister, Yvonne Lassiter.

She was the loving mother of Amin and Amir Wallace, and Ghana Casey; cherished sister of Wendell and Dexter 'Keith' Wallace. Wendy is also survived by her grandson, Ezra Maysonet and devoted niece, Eryca Manzano along with two nieces and two nephews; Shadai Hunt, Quincè Lassiter, Kelvin Brown, and Queue Lassiter, respectively ...and a host of other relatives and many, many dear friends.

*I Heard
The Angel Say*

I thought I saw your face today,
in the sparkle of the morning sun.
And then I heard the angel say,
"Their work on earth is done."

I thought I heard your voice today,
then laugh your hearty laugh.
And then I heard the angel say,
"There's peace dear one at last."

I thought I felt your touch today, in the breeze that rustled by.
And then I heard the angel say,
"The spirit never dies."

I thought I saw my broken heart,
in the crescent of the moon.
And then I heard the angel say,
"Your peace is coming soon."

I thought that you had left me,
for the stars so far above.
And then I heard the angel say,
"They left you with their love."

I thought that I would miss you so,
and never find my way.
And then I heard the angel say,
"They're with you every day."
"The sun, the wind, the moon, the stars,
will forever be around,
reminding you of the love you shared,
and the peace they've finally found.

Bobbi Davis

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
