Obituary

Aaron Horace “Sporty” Smith was a strong, independent and proud man, who loved his family and friends.

Aaron was born in Harlem, NY. He was the third son born to Horace and Adelaide Smith.

He was first educated at Saint Aloysius in Harlem, NY. Afterwards, his parents moved to Queens, NY, where he was further educated at P.S. 118 and then at Thomas Edison High School where he graduated.

He worked as a city employee for the MTA as a Conductor for eighteen years, and then he went on to work at the Health Department for an additional thirteen years. In his spare time, he enjoyed fishing, sports, music and dancing.

He is survived by his four children, Lisa Taylor, Marcus Smith, LaToya Thomson and Keith Brooks. He is also survived by his brothers, Raymond and Phillip, as well as his sister, Winifred Faustin.

He leaves behind his brother-in-law, Jose and sister-in-law, Lillie and a number of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and also a host of people who loved him.

Life

*Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road
To sweet Eternity.*

*We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn something,
But never meant to stay.....*

*Our destination is a place far
Greater than we know,
For some, the journey's quicker,
For some, the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.*

Acknowledgements

*The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation
the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.
May God Bless and Keep You!*
