

Fly On To Heaven

Fly on to heaven, fly high, fly free, take your place with God and your long lost family. On this earth you are a brother, father, grandfather, great grandfather and father-in-law. You eased all our tears with your great spirit and calm hands. No more hurt, no more pain, you floated to heaven and gained PEACE. Even though we will miss you And it hurts more than we can stand, we know you are care free and in God's hands. Can't wait to see you again. You will always be loved and missed.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Sterling Edward Davis was born October 4, 1948 to Emmitt Terry and Annetta Davis in Luka, Mississippi. He departed this life on January 6, 2014. He attended the Luka Grade School and Eason High School in Corinth, Mississippi. At a young age he was baptized at Jones Chapel C.M.E Church of Luka. He later attended and completed the Job Corp., in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Sterling moved to Newark, New Jersey where he met his wife of forty-two years, Bobbie Jean Flagg. To this union was born one son, Shondell D. Davis.

For many years he worked for the Hoffman Soda Company and later the Stroehman Bread Company. Sterling loved working and gave his all to whatever task he was given.

While growing up Sterling had many friends and enjoyed their company when he would return to Luka Homecoming celebrations. He also loved parties, dances and good food. He later developed an interest in bowling.

Both parents preceded him in death. He leaves to mourn his passing: a beloved wife, Bobbie Jean Davis; a devoted son, Shondell D. (Wanda) Davis; two grandsons, Jabari Davis and Jordan Davis; one brother, Rev. William (Corene) Davis, Toledo, Ohio; a sister in-law, Vickie Sikes, Midlothian, VA; cousins, Betty Shannon Pride, Bobby Shannon, both of Luka, Mississippi, Earl Thompson, Louis Thompson and Paulette Bennett all of Woodbridge, VA, Pam Duckett of Madison, AL goddaughters, Arriel Miles and Alexis Miles, a longtime friend, Chris Ross; and a host of other relatives and friends.
