Obituary

Kenard Brown, second of five siblings as well as a twin; born to Ella Belle Brown and James Harold Brown on December 9, 1954 received his education in the New York City School System.

Kenard worked for Pepsi Cola Corp. and moved on to work for Stuyvesant Oil Burner Corp. Kenard worked until he became disabled.

Kenard was an individual that had a smile and personality that could put a smile on your face and brightened up anyone's day. He could make you laugh at the snap of a finger. If you ever needed a helping hand he would always try to be there even in sickness. Kenard was a great listener who would never judge and always shared great words of wisdom.

On December 24, 2013, Kenard moved on to join his mother, father and his wife, Tammie Brown.

Kenard leaves to mourn: two sons, Kenard Brown, Jr. and Bernard Brown of NYC; one grandson, Escobar Kenard Brown; two granddaughters, Jackie and Brooklyn; one sister, Ella Belle Brown-Johnson; three brothers, James Henry Brown, Jr. and his twin Bernard Brown and Minister Joseph Brown all of NYC; two sisters-in-law, Catherine Brown and Charlene Brown and one brother-in-law all of NYC; two aunts, one uncle, six nephews, four nieces, five great nephews, three great nieces, his beloved in-laws and a host of cousins, friends and family.

To My Loved Ones

No reason for sorrow, no reason to cry. Look toward tomorrow and I'll tell you why my memories of you and yours of me are filled with love and laughter forever. You'll see no reason to worry, nor question God as to why you have lost me. No reason to say goodbye.

It's time for my journey home, a beautiful and peaceful trip that I must make alone. So just be strong and keep a smile, we'll only be apart for a little while. The love I've known is a very special part, the love I've shown came straight from the heart.

I leave you now to go on my way to a wonderful place where we'll be together someday. No reason at all as you can see. I'm with my Lord. He'll take care of me.

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour. May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.
