Obituary

Cheryl Williams Cuff “Cheri” was born on May 18, 1946 at Muhlenberg Hospital in Plainfield, New Jersey. She was the daughter of the late Frederick A. Williams and the late Ellanor Williams. She had been a resident of Piscataway for forty-seven years.

Cheryl attended Plainfield High School in New Jersey where she was always an excellent student. She received high honors. While attending Plainfield High, Cheryl met the love of her life, Malcolm T. Cuff in her senior year. They were so inseparable that they were married on June 3, 1967. They were married for forty-three glorious years. They had two beautiful daughters, Mallory A. Cuff and Marrison A. Cuff.

Cheryl was employed as an Executive Secretary for AT&T for thirty years. She also worked in the Murry Hill, Berkely Heights and Basking Ridge Offices. She was a very diligent worker who always went above and beyond the call of duty. Mrs. Cuff was a devoted member of the First Baptist Church of Lincoln Gardens for twelve years.

Cheryl was not only a mother, she was a wonderful grandmother. When she found out that her daughter Marrison was pregnant, she was overwhelmed with joy. She was blessed with a grandson, Darren Malcolm Dacres on January 29, 2005. Cheryl and Darren had been inseparable since the first day that he was born. She was more than a grandmother, she was also a friend. She always said, “My friends are going to get sick of me talking about him (her grandson). I am his greatest fan”.

Cheryl had the biggest heart that you could ever imagine. She was always about her family and they adored her. She was known for her love of photography and scrapbooking as well as her favorite hobby of spoiling her grandson. She would do everything for her children and her grandson and her husband Malcolm T. Cuff.

She was predeceased by her parents Frederick Sr. and Eleanor, brother, Timothy Williams, grandmother, Lucy Pope, and niece, Lory Holley.

Cheryl went home to be with the Lord and other family members on January 7, 2014 at home in Piscataway.

She leaves to cherish fond memories: her loving husband of forty-seven years, Malcolm T. Cuff; two daughters, Mallory A. Cuff and Marrison A. Cuff all of Piscataway, NJ; a very special grandson, Darren M. Dacres, brother Frederick Williams (Beverly Williams) of Somerset, NJ; four sisters, Bernice Holley of Plainfield, NJ, Christine Williams of Plainfield, NJ, Cleo McCleod of Plainfield, NJ, and Selena A. Howard (Kevin M. Howard) of Piscataway, NJ; sister-in-law Carol Williams of Willingboro, NJ; one brother-in-law, Dennis Cuff; devoted friends, Mrs. Denise Harris and the “Dance Moms”; and a host of many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Cheryl's spirit will be carried in the hearts of her devoted family and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
