Life's Reflections

Our beloved Veronica “Chev” Alise Lipscomb, 38 was called home on January 13, 2014 at Lenox Hill Hospital in New York, New York.

Veronica was born on July 30, 1975 to Gwendolyn Lipscomb and Glenarno Williams in the Bronx, New York. For many years Veronica resided in Andrew Jackson Houses where she was known for her friendliness, sweet personality and contagious laughter.

Veronica matriculated through the New York City Public School System. With ambition and motivation, Veronica continued her education at Monroe College and received her Bachelors Degree in Business. In May of 1994, Veronica landed a job with the New York City Housing Authority as a secretary for Taft Houses.

In April of 1999, Veronica was hired as a Correction Officer by the New York City Department of Correction where she worked at several facilities such as AMKC, MDC and VCBC. During her career as a Correction Officer she maintained that sweet and loving personality and her circle of friends and acquaintances grew.

On December 30, 2002, Veronica and Douglas Price were blessed with their precious daughter, Armani Price the joy of her life whom she loved so dearly.

Veronica's character was one to be modeled. Anyone that met her instantly fell in love with her. Her generosity alone spoke volumes. If she had it, you had it. Veronica loved everyone and always spoke highly of people. She loved to party and have a good time. If you invited her to an event you better believe that she made it her business to attend even if she came late. She traveled with her family often, as well as with her friends. She shared herself and spread her love to each individual in her life. She made no one feel left out. She was a loyal and trustworthy person.

On Monday, January 13, 2014, a page turned and a chapter closed on the life of Veronica Lipscomb.

Cherishing her memories and celebrating her life are: her loving daughter, Armani; mother, Gwendolyn; three sisters, Unique, Tiffany and Victoria; brother, Harold; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and goddaughter.

She is preceded in death by her father, Glenarno Williams, grandmother, Ethel Lipscomb, grandfather, Robert Lipscomb and uncle, Ervin Lipscomb.

Today we are here to give honor to a beautiful woman that was loved by many and whose spirit will remain in our hearts forever.

*God saw she was getting tired and a cure was not to be.
So He gently closed those loving eyes And whispered "Come to me"
The days of toil and nights of pain. The weary hours have passed
The patient gentle worn out frame. Has found sweet rest at last.
Day and night we stood by her and saw her in pain,
Anxiously awaiting her cure, but our waiting was in vain.
God who knoweth all things best Eased her suffering, gave her rest
She is gone but not forgotten, Never will our memories fade
Sweetest thoughts of her will ever linger
Round the place where she rests.*
