Reflections of Life

Patricia Ann Brown was born to Calestine Jackson and Herbert C Jackson on June 16, 1952, in Florence County, Florence South Carolina.

Patricia was educated in the Queens New York school system. Patricia attended Wilfred Academy Beautician school in Totowa NJ, where she graduated and landed a job as a beautician. Currently, Patricia was employed through Comfort Care Nursing Agency where she worked as a Certified Home Companion.

Forty Seven years ago, Patricia met Carlyle Brown, they fell in love and got married. She was a devoted wife, and from this union came two beautiful children Anthony and Tanisha Brown. Patricia loved kids, a few years later along came baby boy Rayshon and she took him in and raised him as her own. She also helped in raising her grandchildren.

Patricia was a beautiful woman and had a giving heart, she had a smile that would light up a room and she would give you her last. Patricia had a way with people and brought the best out of a person.

In her leisure time, Patricia loved to cook, bake, and was a wonderful caregiver. Patricia became a member of Gilmore Memorial Tabernacle of Paterson NJ, under the leadership of Pastor Allene Gilmore where she accepted Christ as her personal savior. She served on the Nurses unit, where she personally made sure Pastor Gilmore had a good meal each and every Sunday.

She also served on the International Women's Convention, Local Women's Convention, Golden age club and the Culinary Dept. In 2013, under the leadership of Pastor Thomas P. Farrar, She was ordained as a Deaconess of Gilmore Memorial Tabernacle. That was one of her best accomplishments in life. Sister Patricia Brown was truly blessed and always started a sentence by saying "Gods Willing" she loved to spread the word of God.

She was a get to the point, straight forward kind of person and she has touched so many lives. Patricia favorite scripture was: Psalms 27:4: One thing have I desired of The Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of The Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of The Lord, and to enquire in his temple. Some of her other favorite scriptures are: Matthew 6:9-13, Psalms 23.

Patricia will be greatly missed by all.

Patricia was predeceased by: her mother, Calestine Jackson, her grandparents Mary and James Bennette, her brother David Jackson, her mother and father in-law Jimmy and Cassie Brown, her sister in-law Mary Brown.
