Obituary

Mrs. Ada B. Belton, was called from labor to rewards on Thursday, January 23, 2014 at Harlem Hospital in New York City.

Ada was born in Bishopville, South Carolina to Blanch Jennings on September 25, 1934. She attended the public schools of Bishopville, South Carolina. She furthered her education with a certificate from the School of Massage Therapy from the Swedish Institute. This began her career as a masseuse with high profile clientele. She was self employed as a masseuse for many years until her retirement. She then began volunteering her time at her church, Bethany Baptist Church. She was a faithful member of Bethany for over thirty years. She served on the Floral Ministry, Missionary Society, Pastor Aide and countless other committees.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories: her daughter, Sarah (William) Pearson; her son, Leonard Belton; granddaughter and grandson, whom she reared as her own, Karseen Hazel and Sherray Belton, other grandchildren are, Robert, Antonio, Kevin, Jonita, Taniya and Talaisha; her sisters, Rosalee (Edgar) Hicks and Marie (Emory) Bostic; nieces, Blanche, Cari and Chare; nephews, Kenneth and Kevin; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Her daughter, Edna Iyone Belton and her sister, Pearline Jennings preceded her in death.

Our family chain has been broken and another most vital link has been removed, but since God saw it wise to call her from labor to reward,
we bow in humble submission and calmly say “Thy Will Be Done” though we loved her dearly, God loved her best.

Serenity Prayer

*GOD, grant me the Serenity
to accept the things I cannot change, Courage to change the things I can, and the Wisdom to know the difference.*

Living one day at a time;

Enjoying one moment at a time;

Accepting hardship as the pathway to peace.

*Taking, as He did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it. Trusting that He will make all things right if I surrender to His Will;
That I may be reasonably happy in this life, and supremely happy with Him forever in the next.*

Amen
